

Quotes	Line/ Speaker	Admirable/ Not Admirable
“Eat and be glad, and when you have eaten we will ask who you are, since your fathers’ lineage is evident in you”	59-112, Menelaus	A-Odysseus’s unique lineage is easily found in Telemachus
“you are of the race of sceptred kings favoured by Zeus, no common men could get such sons as you.”	59-112, Menelaus	A- Odysseus has godlike characteristics
“none of the Acheaeans laboured like Odysseus or endured so much.”	59-112, Menelaus	A- Odysseus endured a lot
“his speech prompted Telemachus to weep for his father. Tears from his eyes fell to the ground at his father’s name”	113-154, Homer	A-this shows how missed Odysseus is
“For I have never seen such a likeness before in man or woman, it stuns me to look, as the likeness of this man to great-hearted Odysseus”	113-154, the wife of Menelaus	A- Odysseus is great-hearted
“his father is absent a son has many sorrows at home, with no one to help him. His father is absent, and among his people there is no one to defend him from ruin.”	155-219, Peisistratus	N/a- Odysseus if not there to help Telemachus
“I would have given him a city in Argos: I would have built him a palace, and brought him from Ithaca with all his possessions”	155-219, Menelaus	A- Menelaus would build a palace for Odysseus for all the things he's done

“Diomedes and I were ready to answer within, and leap out, but Odysseus restrained us, despite our eagerness.”	220-289, Tydeus	A- Odysseus was patient and saved their lives
“good Odysseus, promised you word or action, and fulfilled it on that field of Troy where Achaeans suffered, I beg you, remember it now: tell me the whole truth.”	290-350, Telemachus	A- Odysseus can keep his word and follow through on his actions
“Rogues, men without courage, they are, who wish to creep into a brave man’s bed. Odysseus will bring them to a cruel end”	290-350, Menelaus	A- Odysseus is brave N/a- Odysseus will murder them cruelly
“she made us lie in a row, and threw a seal skin over each. Our waiting would have been dreadful”	398-463, Menelaus	A- people are going through all of this just to save Odysseus and his fellow fighters
“I saw him shedding great tears in the island haunt of the Nymph Calypso”	548-592, Proteus	A- Odysseus misses his family